EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

YOUNG MUSICIAN'S PASS

DISCOVER A WORLD OF MUSIC ... FOR FREE

Every August some of the world's finest musicians, orchestras and ensembles come to perform in Edinburgh at the International Festival. With the Young Musician's Pass you can see them for free!

From world-class orchestras at Usher Hall, to breathtaking soloists, singers and instrumentalists at The Hub and The Queen's Hall, the International Festival's music programme has something to inspire all young, passionate musicians. Each year we give away hundreds of free tickets to young Scottish musicians and singers, so you can experience the best music from around the world right here in Scotland.

WHAT'S THE DEAL?

The Young Musician's Pass offers you:

A pair of free tickets for up to three concerts (one at each venue across the Usher Hall, The Queen's Hall and The Hub), subject to availability.

TO BE ELIGIBLE YOU MUST:

- Be aged 8–18
- Live in Scotland
- Play an instrument or sing

Head to eif.co.uk/ympass to sign up as a member.

You'll receive a confirmation email once your account has been registered.

You can then log into your account and book free tickets from midday 25 March.
